

Quilpie Show

In September Catherine Crowden and Darren Jennings attended the Quilpie Show to talk to landholders about their issues and let them know what we have available. Catherine also thought it would be a good idea to put up jokes on the boards... we didn't say they were good ones, but here they are in case you can't read them in the pictures below!

Q. What happened to the lost cattle?

A. Nobody's herd!

Q. Where do sheep go when they die?

A. To the Baa Baa Que!

Above: It was a great day out at the Quilpie Show. Catherine (pictured top right) and Darren (second from left, and far right) had some great discussions with landholders, including South West NRM Mulga Award winner Rob Rennick (far left) and Quilpie legend Dave McWaters (second from right).
